

Beaver Creek Reserve Citizen Science Center 2025 - A Year in Review

Avian Monitoring Program

Bird Banding

Weekly Feeder Banding

- 251 birds banded
- 28 species

American Kestrels

- 32 juveniles banded
- 7 adults banded
- 2 recaptures

MAPS

- 79 banded birds
- 37 recaptures
- 22 species

Saw-whet Owl Migration

- 154 birds banded
- 2 species
- 1,042 net hours

Wood Thrush

- 11 thrushes banded
- 24 detections
- 2 detections in Mexico

Education and Outreach

- 16 public programs
- 7 bander continued learning
- 2 songbird banding trainings
- 1 owl banding training
- 17 net mending sessions

Bird Monitoring

Midwest Crane Count

- 138 cranes counted

Eastern Bluebirds

- 51 nest sites
- 130 eggs
- 64% fledge rate
- 5 trails

Christmas Bird Count

- 20,583 birds counted
- 61 species
- 5 counts

Bald Eagle Nest Watch

- 21 nests
- 20 fledglings

Volunteers

- 131 volunteers
- 4,183 service hours

To learn more about Beaver Creek Reserve's Citizen Science Center's Avian Monitoring Program and the birds we work with, please contact:

Jeanette Kelly | Citizen Science Director or Santiago Tabares | Avian Field Technician
csc@beavercreekreserve.org or santiago@beavercreekreserve.org | (715) 877-2212